

MSU GERMAN PRESENTS:
A SYMPOSIUM ON THE
INTERSECTION OF S.T.E.M. &
THE HUMANITIES

HISTORIES OF SCIENCE &
TECHNOLOGY IN GERMANY
AND BEYOND

THURSDAY MARCH 14, 2019
1PM-5:30PM

SUB PROCRASTINATOR THEATER
MONTANA STATE UNIVERSITY

OPEN TO PUBLIC
DETAILS HERE: MSUGERMAN.WEEBLY.COM

HISTORIES OF SCIENCE & TECHNOLOGY IN GERMANY AND BEYOND

INTERSECTIONS OF STEM & THE HUMANITIES:
2019 MSU SYMPOSIUM

THURSDAY MARCH 14, 2019
SUB PROCRASTINATOR THEATER
1-5:30PM

1-2pm

Roundtable: Revaluating International Experience

Moderator: Kate Kithil, MSU German Studies

- Lindsey Brandt-Bennett, MSU-Northern
- Torben Hennigs, Goethe-Institut Washington D.C.
- Rebecca Langlois-Warnat, MSU DAAD Ambassador
- Nina Mondré Schweppe, MSU Liberal Studies
- Emma Kankelborg, MSU Psychology

2-2:45pm

Research Panel: STEM Connections

Symposium Introduction: Peter Schweppe, MSU German Studies

Moderator: Justin Johnson, MSU Chemical Engineering

- Stephan Warnat, MSU Mechanical & Industrial Engineering

2:45-3:00pm

break

3:00-3:15pm

Welcome Remarks

Dean Brett Gunnink, Norm Asbjornson College of Engineering

Dean Nicol Rae, College of Letters & Science

3:15-4:15pm

Research Panel: Histories of Science and Technology

Moderator: Catherine Dunlop, MSU History

- Kelly Whitmer, Associate Professor, History Department, The University of the South
- Michael Reidy, Full Professor, MSU History

4:15-4:25pm

break

4:25-5:25pm

Research Panel: Science and Technology and/in Modern Languages

Moderator: Peter Schweppe, MSU German Studies

- Alice Christensen, Killam Postdoctoral Researcher, University of British Columbia
- Galen Brokaw, Chair of Modern Languages, MSU

